The GM Suh Chun Suk memorial competition remembers the original Kwanjangnim (“head master”) of Chung Do Taekwondo and the founder of Australian Taekwondo Chungdokwan.

GM Suh was a student of the GM Park Hae Man (Kwanjangnim of World Taekwondo Chungdokwan and once head Taekwondo instructor to the Blue House).

After training in Taekwondo in South Korea for many years GM Suh was sent to Vietnam as one of the instructors for the Allied troops. He later migrated to Australia in 1974 starting the Australiasian Taekwondo Chungdokwan Association laying the roots of Chungdokwan Taekwondo throughout Australia, Singapore and the APAC region.

Since 1974, tens of thousands of students have been through the doors of the dojang and taught by many experienced instructors who have benefitted from GM Suh’s teaching.

GM Suh passed away in 2019 but his legacy lives on through each of his students.
